The Inspiring Musical Journeys of Cordial Artists

Multi-Instrument Virtuoso

John Jorgenson

"I can't recommend them highly enough to all my musical friends!"

From his beginnings with the seminal Desert Rose Band through back-to-back Country Music Association "Guitarist of the Year" awards, a Grammy, and non-stop touring with five—count 'em—of his own bands (along with a recent return to guitar duty for Sir Elton), John Jorgenson has more than earned his "virtuoso" moniker. Equally comfortable on electric and acoustic guitars—along with mandolin, bouzouki, clarinet, sax, upright bass, pedal steel, vocals and more—John's considerable talents have been relied upon by a host of notable artists, ranging from Bob Dylan and the Byrds to Barbra Streisand, Reba McEntyre and Peter Frampton.

John chooses Cordial cables for their pure, uncolored sound—a quality he finds especially important for his electro-acoustic instruments. But Cordial's True to the Source™ sound is just one half of the equation. "The reliability is unmatched," John notes. "I've never had a Cordial cable fail. I can't say that about any other cable brand."
