

PATHWAYS

The Inspiring Musical Journeys of Cordial Artists

“Loving my Cordial cables. Sonics are perfect. Expertly made.”

Been there, still doin' that Leland Sklar

Perhaps more than any other Cordial artist, pre-eminent bassist Leland Sklar represents the Pathways aesthetic best: a long (long!) career populated with an extraordinary number of milestone recording sessions, tours, movie dates, and more—and always at the forefront of the popular music scene. James Taylor? Check. Jackson Browne? Check. Phil Collins? Check. Fact is, you could name pretty much any iconic album/song/artist from the '70s, '80s, and '90s and there's a good chance Leland would be listed on the credits—not too surprising for a player whose work spans over 2,000 albums/25,000 songs and uncountable live performances.

that includes his bandmates from The Section, and featuring Cordial artists Danny Kortchmar and Steve Postell along with guitarist Waddy Wachtel and drummer Russ Kunkel—Leland records and plays regularly, having never lost appreciation for his position at the center (or, rather, the bottom) of the pop/rock/country music scene. “I still get completely jacked when the phone rings,” he offers.

Despite his reputation as a minimalist player (“It’s about the song, not me,” he explains matter-of-factly), Lee has gone to great lengths to make sure that every one of his notes count—hence his reliance on Cordial cables, which are crafted to ensure that every nuance of his tone, dynamics, and feel are transmitted through the wire. “The sonics are perfect,” he says.

Thanks, Lee, but those sonics are 100% yours. We’re just making sure they get from your fingers to your amp without fail.
